PROXY STATEMENT

This Proxy Statement is furnished in connection with the solicitation by the Board of Directors of Programmer's Paradise, Inc. (the "Company") of proxies to be voted at the Annual Meeting of Stockholders ("the Meeting") to be held at the offices of Dechert LLP, 30 Rockefeller Plaza, New York, New York, on June 10, 2004 at 10:00 AM, local time, and at any adjournments or postponements thereof, for the purposes set forth in the accompanying Notice of Annual Meeting of Stockholders. Any stockholder giving such a proxy may revoke it at any time before it is exercised by written notice to the Secretary of the Company at the above-stated address or by giving a later dated proxy. Attendance at the Meeting will not have the effect of revoking the proxy unless such written notice is given, or unless the stockholder votes by ballot at the Meeting.

The approximate date on which this Proxy Statement and the accompanying form of proxy will first be sent or given to the Company's stockholders is April 29, 2004.

VOTING SECURITIES

Only holders of shares of the Company's Common Stock, $.01 par value per share ("Common Stock"), of record at the close of business on April 26, 2004 are entitled to vote at the Meeting. On April 26, 2004 (the "Record Date"), 3,822,785 shares of Common Stock were issued and outstanding. In addition, on that date, 1,461,715 shares were held in Treasury by the Company and deemed issued but not outstanding. Each outstanding share of Common Stock is entitled to one vote upon all matters to be acted upon at the Meeting. A majority in interest of the outstanding Common Stock represented at the Meeting in person or by proxy shall constitute a quorum. The affirmative vote of a plurality of the shares present in person or represented by proxy at the Meeting and entitled to vote is necessary to elect the nominees for election as Directors. Accordingly, shares not voted in the election of Directors (including shares covered by a proxy as to which authority is withheld to vote for all nominees) and shares not voted for any particular nominee (including shares covered by a proxy as to which authority is withheld to vote for only one or less than all of the identified nominees) will not prevent the election of any of the nominees for Director. For all other matters, if any, submitted to stockholders at the Meeting, if a quorum is present, the affirmative vote of a majority of the shares represented at the Meeting and entitled to vote is required for approval. As a result, abstention votes will have the effect of a vote against such matters. Abstentions and broker non-votes are counted for purposes of determining the presence or absence of a quorum for the transaction of business. Broker non-votes are not counted for any purpose in determining whether a matter has been approved.

If the enclosed proxy is properly executed and returned, the Common Stock represented thereby will be voted in accordance with the instructions thereon. If no instructions are indicated, the Common Stock represented thereby will be voted FOR the election of each of the nominees set forth under the caption "Election of Directors" and in the discretion of the persons named in the proxies as proxy appointees as to any other matter that may properly come before the Meeting.

Your vote is important. Accordingly, you are urged to fill in, sign, date and return the accompanying proxy card whether or not you plan to attend the Meeting. If you do attend, you may vote by ballot at the Meeting, thereby canceling any proxy previously given.

In April 1995, the Company adopted the 1995 Non-Employee Director Plan pursuant to which the Company's non-employee Directors received automatic grants of options to purchase shares of Common Stock. See "Stock Option Plans-1995 Non-Employee Director Plan."

Based solely upon a review of such forms, or on written representations from certain reporting persons that no reports were required for such persons, the Company believes that during 2003 all required events of its officers, directors and 10% stockholders required to be so reported, have been timely filed.

EMPLOYEE BENEFIT PLANS

The Company provides all employees, including executive officers, with group medical, dental and disability insurance on a non-discriminatory basis. Employees are required to contribute 20% of the premium costs of such policies. The Company has a 401(k) savings and investment plan intended to qualify under Section 401(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code"), for its domestic employees, which permits employee salary reductions for tax-deferred savings purposes pursuant to Section 401(k) of the Code. The Company matches 50% of domestic employee contributions up to the first 6% of compensation. The Company's total contributions for 2003 were approximately $84,000.

The Company maintains a performance bonus plan for its senior executives which provides for a bonus of up to 50% of the executive's base salary in the event certain performance targets, based upon revenue and operating profitability, are achieved and also provides for additional incentive bonuses based upon pre-established metrics (the "Performance Bonus Plan"). The Performance Bonus Plan also provides for an increase in the available bonus pool for performance in excess of a specified net income after tax performance target (the "over target bonus"). Subject to approval by its Board of Directors, the Company anticipates that a similar type bonus plan will continue in effect for 2004 and subsequent fiscal years and that bonuses under this plan in the 2004 fiscal year and thereafter will be based on the Company meeting or exceeding profitability targets established by the Compensation Committee.

STOCK OPTION PLANS

1986 Stock Option Plan. The Company's 1986 Stock Option Plan (the "1986 Option Plan") expired in accordance with its terms in March 1996. Pursuant to the 1986 Option Plan "incentive stock options" ("ISO" or "ISOs") to purchase shares of Common Stock were granted to officers and other key employees (some of whom are also Directors) of the Company. Additionally, Directors of the Company were granted non-qualified options pursuant to the 1986 Option Plan. Due to its expiration and termination, no additional options may be granted under the 1986 Option Plan. As a result of exercises in 2003, no options remain outstanding under the 1986 Option Plan.

1995 Stock Plan. The purpose of the Company's 1995 Stock Plan (the "1995 Stock Plan") is to provide incentives to officers, directors, employees and consultants of the Company. Under the 1995 Stock Plan, officers and employees of the Company and any present or future subsidiary are provided with opportunities to purchase shares of Common Stock of the Company pursuant to options which may qualify as ISOs, or which do not qualify as ISOs ("Non-Qualified Options") and, in addition, such persons may be granted awards of stock in the Company ("Awards") and opportunities to make direct purchases of stock in the Company ("Purchases"). Both ISOs and Non-Qualified Options are referred to hereafter individually as an "Option" and collectively as "Options." Options, Awards and Purchases are referred to hereafter collectively as "Stock Rights." The 1995 Stock Plan contains terms and conditions relating to ISOs necessary to comply with the provisions of Section 422 of the Code.

The 1995 Stock Plan currently authorizes the grant of Stock Rights to acquire up to 1,137,500 shares of Common Stock. A total of 348,400 shares of Common Stock are presently subject to outstanding Options under the 1995 Stock Plan at exercise prices ranging from $2.01 to $6.875 per share. Unless sooner terminated, the 1995 Stock Plan will terminate on April 21, 2005.

The 1995 Stock Plan requires that each Option shall expire on the date specified by the Compensation Committee, but not more than ten years from its date of grant in the case of ISOs and ten years and one day in the case of Non-Qualified Options. However, in the case of any ISO granted to an employee or officer owning more than 10% of the total combined voting power of all classes of stock of the Company or any present or future subsidiary, the ISO expires no more than five years from its date of grant.

1995 Non-Employee Director Plan. The purpose of the Company's 1995 Non-Employee Director Plan (the "1995 Director Plan") is to promote the interests of the Company by providing an inducement to obtain and retain the services of qualified persons who are not employees or officers of the Company to serve as members of its Board of Directors ("Outside Directors"). The 1995 Director Plan authorizes the grant of options for up to 187,500 shares of Common Stock and provides for automatic grants of nonqualified stock options to Outside Directors. Under the 1995 Option Plan, each current Outside Director has received, and each Outside Director who first joins the Board after April 1995 will automatically receive at that time, options to purchase 18,750 shares of Common Stock. The 174,375 options granted to Outside Directors have exercise prices ranging from approximately $2.13 to $7.50. All options granted to Outside Directors have an exercise price equal to 100% of the fair market value on the date of grant. The 1995 Director Plan requires that options granted there under will expire on the date, which is ten years from the date of grant. Each option granted under the 1995 Director Plan becomes exercisable over a five-year period, and vests in an installment of 20% of the total option grant upon the expiration of one year from the date of the option grant, and thereafter vests in equal quarterly installments of 5%.

EMPLOYMENT AND SEVERANCE AGREEMENTS

Each of the Named Executive Officers has entered into an agreement that includes a covenant not-to-compete and a confidentiality provision. The covenant not-to-compete prohibits the executive for a period of one year after termination from engaging in a competing business. Such covenant also prohibits the executive from directly or indirectly soliciting the Company's customers or employees.

The Company entered into an employment agreement with Mr. Willett in July 1998, which provides for a base salary of $225,000 per year. The agreement expires on January 15, 2005. On December 16, 2004, the employment agreement was amended to provide that the Company shall pay a performance bonus in the aggregate amount of $230,000, payable in installments of $46,000 on each of December 31, 2003, March 31, 2004, June 30, 2004, September 30, 2004 and December 31, 2004 provided that Mr. Willett continues to be employed by the Company on such date.

The agreement includes the grant of certain stock options; an automobile allowance and participation in the Company's benefit plans. Mr. Willett has the right to terminate his employment at any time on not less than 90 days prior written notice. The Company has the right to terminate Mr. Willett's employment with or without "cause" (as defined in the employment agreement), without prior written notice.

In the event that Mr. Willett's employment is terminated without cause or by the rendering of a non-renewal notification, he is entitled to receive severance payments equal to twelve months salary and immediate vesting of all outstanding stock awards. Additionally, in the event that a change of control of the Company occurs (as described in the employment agreement), Mr. Willett's outstanding stock awards become immediately vested and he is entitled to the pro-rata performance bonus based upon stock price at the date of such change in control.

The Company has entered into letter agreements with Mr. Nynens and Mr. Legrottaglie. Mr. Nynens is entitled to severance payments for nine months at the then applicable annual base salary if the Company terminates his employment for any reason other than for cause. Mr. Legrottaglie is entitled to severance payments for six months at the then applicable annual base salary if the Company terminates his employment for any reason other than for cause.

CERTAIN TRANSACTIONS

The Company has adopted a policy whereby all transactions between the Company and its principal officers, Directors and affiliates must be on terms no less favorable to the Company than could be obtained from unrelated third parties and will be approved by a majority of the disinterested members of the Company's Board of Directors.

COMPENSATION COMMITTEE INTERLOCKS AND INSIDER PARTICIPATION

Edwin H. Morgens, F. Duffield Meyercord and Allan Weingarten served as members of the Compensation Committee during the last completed fiscal year. None of Messrs. Morgens, Meyercord and Weingarten (i) was, during the last completed fiscal year, an officer or employee of the Company or any of its subsidiaries, (ii) was formerly an officer of the Company or any of its subsidiaries, or (iii) had any relationship requiring disclosure by the Company under any paragraph of Item 404 of Regulation S-K which has not been already disclosed.

REPORT OF THE COMPENSATION COMMITTEE ON EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION

The report of the Compensation Committee shall not be deemed incorporated by reference by any general statement incorporating by reference this proxy statement into any filing under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, or the Exchange Act, except to the extent that the Company specifically incorporates this information by reference, and shall not otherwise be deemed filed under such Acts.

In evaluating the reasonableness of compensation paid to the Company's executive officers, the Compensation Committee takes into account, among other factors, how compensation compares to compensation paid by competing companies, individual contributions and the Company's performance. Base salary is determined based upon individual performance, competitive compensation trends and a review of salaries for like jobs at similar companies.

The Company also maintains the Performance Bonus Plan for its senior executives which provides for a bonus of up to 50% of the executive's base salary in the event certain performance targets, based upon revenue and operating profitability, are achieved. The Performance Bonus Plan also provides for an increase in the available bonus pool for performance in excess of a specified net income after tax performance target. For a further discussion of the Performance Bonus Plan see the discussion under "Employee Benefit Plans."

It is the Company's policy that the compensation of executive officers also be based, in part, on the grant of stock options as an incentive to enhance the Company's performance. Stock options are granted based upon a review of such executive's responsibilities and relative position in the Company, such executive's overall job performance and such executive's existing stock option position. In 2003, 20,000 options at an exercise price of $2.01 were granted to Mr. Legrottaglie. No other options were granted in 2003.

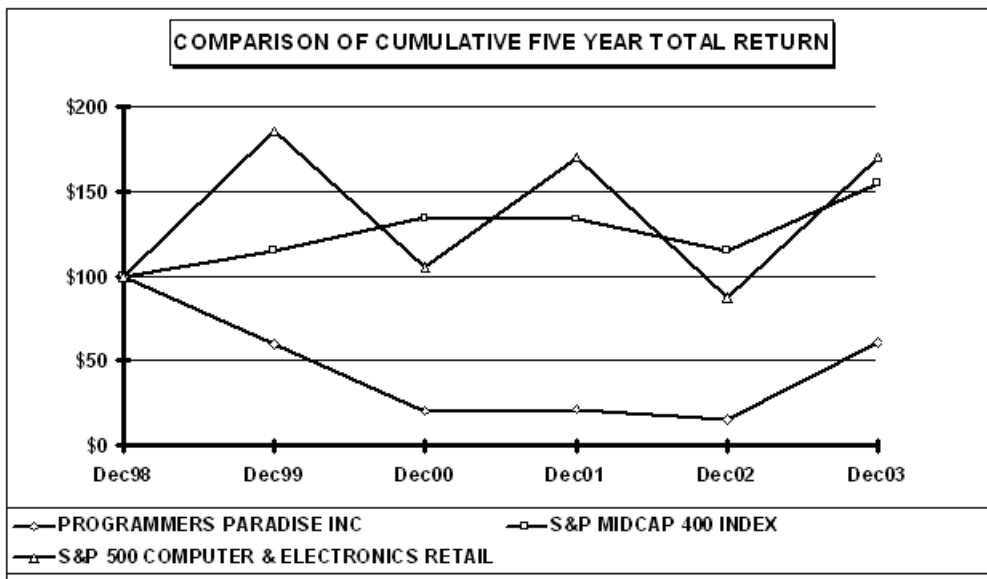

The compensation of the Company's Chief Executive Officer in 2003 consisted of a base salary, an automobile allowance, and a performance bonus. The total compensation package was established considering base salaries of peer Chief Executive Officers with similar executive responsibilities. On December 16, 2004, the employment agreement of Mr. Willett was amended to provide that the Company shall pay Mr. Willett a performance bonus in the aggregate amount of $230,000, payable in installments of $46,000 on each of December 31, 2003, March 31, 2004, June 30, 2004, September 30, 2004 and December 31, 2004 provided that Mr. Willett continues to be employed by the Company on such date.

REPORT OF THE AUDIT COMMITTEE

The Audit Committee oversees the Company's financial reporting process on behalf of the Board of Directors. The Audit Committee consists of three independent directors. Its duties and responsibilities are set forth in a written charter (the "Audit Committee Charter"). The Audit Committee Charter was attached as Exhibit A to the Company's Proxy Statement for the 2002 Annual Meeting of Shareholders, filed with the SEC on April 30, 2002. The Audit Committee believes that it is in full compliance with all regulatory requirements that are currently applicable to it.

In the course of fulfilling its responsibilities during fiscal year 2003, the Audit Committee has:

- o reviewed and discussed with management the audited financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2003;
- o discussed with representatives of Amper, Politziner & Mattia P.A. (the "Independent Auditor") the matters required to be discussed by Statement on Auditing Standards No. 61, Communication with Audit Committees, as amended;
- o received the written disclosures and the letter from the Independent Auditor required by Independence Standards Board Standard No. 1, Independence Discussions with Audit Committees, as amended;
- o discussed with the Independent Auditor its independence from the Company and management; and
- o considered whether the provision by the Independent Auditor of non-audit services is compatible with maintaining the Independent Auditor's independence.

Based on the foregoing, the Audit Committee recommended to the Board of Directors that the audited financial statements referred to above be included in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2003.

The Audit Committee Charter provides that one duty of the Audit Committee is to provide advice to the Board of Directors in selecting, evaluating and replacing the independent auditors. In performing that duty, the Audit Committee recommended that the Board of Directors appoint Amper, Politziner & Mattia P.A. The Board of Directors agreed with this recommendation and, accordingly, appointed Amper, Politziner & Mattia as Programmer's Paradise, Inc.'s independent auditors for 2004.

Respectfully submitted,
F. Duffield Meyercord
Allan Weingarten
Edwin H. Morgens

INFORMATION REGARDING CHANGE OF INDEPENDENT AUDITORS

The Audit Committee annually considers and recommends to the Board of Directors the selection of the Company's independent auditors. As recommended by the Audit Committee, the Board of Directors on April 16, 2002 decided to no longer engage Ernst & Young LLP as the Company's independent auditors and engaged Amper, Politziner & Mattia P.A. to serve as the Company's independent auditors for 2002.

Ernst & Young LLP's reports on the Company's consolidated financial statements for the years ended December 31, 2000 and 2001 did not contain an adverse opinion or disclaimer of opinion, nor were they qualified or modified as to uncertainty, audit scope or accounting principles. Ernst & Young LLP's report on the Company's consolidated financial statements for 2001 does not contain an adverse opinion or disclaimer of opinion, nor was it qualified or modified as to uncertainty, audit scope or accounting principles. During the Company's fiscal years 2000 and 2001 and through April 16, 2002, there were no disagreements with Ernst & Young LLP on any matter of accounting principles or practices, financial statement disclosure, or auditing scope or procedure which, if not resolved to Ernst & Young LLP's satisfaction, would have caused them to make reference to the subject matter in connection with their report on the Company's consolidated financial statements for such years; and there were no reportable events, as listed in Item 304(a)(1)(v) of SEC Regulation S-K. During fiscal 2000 and 2001 and through March 8, 2002, the Company did not consult Amper, Politziner & Mattia P.A. with respect to the application of accounting principles to a specified transaction, either completed or proposed, or the type of audit opinion that might be rendered on Programmer's Paradise, Inc.'s consolidated financial statements, or any other matters or reportable events listed in Items 304(a)(2)(i) and (ii) of SEC Regulation S-K.

RELATIONSHIP WITH INDEPENDENT AUDITORS

Our principal independent auditing firm during the year ended December 31, 2003 was Amper, Politziner & Mattia P.A., independent certified public accountants. Amper, Politziner & Mattia P.A. has audited our financial statements since 2002. One or more representatives of Amper, Politziner & Mattia P.A. are expected to be present at the meeting. They will have the opportunity to make a statement and will be available to respond to appropriate questions.

Fees and independence

Audit Fees. Amper, Politziner & Mattia P.A. billed us an aggregate of $70,500 and $67,000 for professional services rendered for the audit of our financial statements for the years ended December 31, 2003 and 2002 and its reviews of our financial statements included in our quarterly reports on form 10-Q for the years ended December 31, 2003 and 2002, respectively.

Audit-Related Fees. Amper, Politziner & Mattia P.A. billed us an aggregate of $18,500 and $12,500 for assurance and services related to the Company's defined contribution plan and accounting consultations for the years ended December 31, 2003 and 2002, respectively.

Tax Fees. The aggregate fees billed for professional services rendered by Amper, Politziner & Mattia P.A. during fiscal 2003 and 2002 for tax compliance, tax advice and tax planning were $10,000 and $10,000 respectively.

All Other Fees. During the years ended December 31, 2003 and 2002, Amper, Politziner & Mattia P.A. did not provide or bill for other services not included above.

The Audit Committee has determined that the provision of services by Amper, Politziner & Mattia P.A. described in the preceding paragraphs is compatible with maintaining Amper, Politziner & Mattia's independence. All permissible non-audit services provided by Amper, Politziner & Mattia P.A. in 2002 and 2003 were pre-approved by the Audit Committee.
